

EXTRACTS FROM SUNDAY SERMONS PREACHED IN ST. LOUIS PULPITS

"On the threshold of a new year it is time for retrospect and prospect. Of the past we can speak in the language of experience. Of the future in words of prophecy and well-wishing." —The Reverend John L. Roemer.

"New Year's Day gives opportunity for calm, earnest, heart-searching thought before we plunge again into the stress of life. Most of the New Year's resolutions are not worth while, because for the most part they arise from some temporary sentiment rather than from a true conception of one's relations to God, eternity and his fellow-men." —The Reverend Doctor W. J. Williamson.

"We know that we do not live in an orderless, capricious universe. The result of our study of nature convinces us that there is not a grain of sand or a blazing sun that is not obedient to law. Under the new creation due to the gospel of light we clearly see that under the reign of universal and impartial law, and know that at the center of all things there must be a supreme ethical rule. Therefore, we worship the God of order, of law, of right." —The Reverend Clark Cranford.

BY DIVINE GUIDANCE NATURE HAS BECOME NEW

Doctor Clark Crawford Says All Men Should Enter New Year With Clean Spirits.

"All Things New" was the theme of the sermon delivered yesterday morning by the Reverend Doctor Clark Crawford at Main Avenue M. E. Church. Taking for his text, "Behold, make all things new," (Rev. xiii. 5) he said in part:

"What a decree! It comes from the throne of power. He who sits thereon made all things new by creation, and even more has been making them new by grace and development. He has come new out of the old, sometimes by disclosure of the secrets already there, sometimes by the displacement of the bad. In the old there was the good that ought to have been there, as in the moral regeneration of man. We see that good ever surviving.

"As we face another year in the calendar I greet you with the well-wishes of the past, that a thousand graces may be yours during the coming days, among them —of the future, the language of experience. Of the future, in words of prophecy and well-wishing.

In health, even as thy soul prospers," and said in part:

"We are about to usher in a new year. A new portion of the volume 1905 will be closed. Time is now come to review the present and peer into the future. On the threshold of a new year it is time for retrospect and prospect; of the past we can speak in the language of experience. Of the future, in words of prophecy and well-wishing.

EDWARDSVILLE.

RESCUED BY CHUM FROM LIVE WIRES

At Risk of His Life Jack Brady Pulls John Jacobs Off Cables at Power House Near Edwardsville.

After several hours of work of electricity had passed through his body for more than a minute, John Jacobs of Peoria was rescued by a fellow-worker from a power house near Edwardsville, where he had been working on the power plant of the McKinley Electric Co. there. Edwardsville badly burned but still alive.

The young man had been exposed to the elements for two hours.

By the money of God he has been spared through another year and though he has been much of self-sacrifice and self-reliance, yet he has had no reason every reason to be grateful. Material prosperity is making a name for him.

"Well-wishing for material prosperity is not unique in our faith. In the language of the human world the master was well-known to be the author of all the wealth of heaven and earth concerning which the Christ was interested in every phase of the earth life.
